

REVENGE ON WEST NILE FOOTNOTES

- ²³ From an interview with ex-President Lule.
- ²⁴ Avirgan, Honey: 'War in Uganda' (London 1982), pp 190 and 225.
- ²⁵ 'Report to the Military Commission . . . on a Fact Finding Tour of the Three War Affected Areas of Nebbi, Arua and Moyo, 25/10/80-2/11/80' included in 'Genocide and the Gross Violation of Human Rights in N-W Uganda', UNLF-AD, May 1981.
- ²⁶ Uganda Times, 11/3/81.
- ²⁷ Africa Confidential, Vol 24, No 22.
- ²⁸ Observer, 7/11/82.
- ²⁹ Southern Sudan, February-March, 1982.
- ³⁰ In 1984, a Ugandan intelligence team was admitted to the Southern Sudanese refugee camps – its members conceded that the guerrillas were not operating out of Sudan, but insisted that refugees on the borders were still liable to supply UNRF fighters with food. The Sudanese government responded by preparing to move the self-settled refugees from the Kajo-Kaji area to sites further inland.
- ³¹ The Times, 29/11/83. See also Sudanow, May 1984.
- ³² Sunday Times, 21/8/83 (and also 31/10/83).
- ³³ UNHCR fact sheets for Zaire and Sudan for June 1984, and October 1983 (the start of the repatriation programme).
- ³⁴ WFP News, January-March 1984.
- ³⁵ UN General Assembly document on ICARA II: A/CONF. 125/2, Paragraphs 1056, 1071. Shafiq Arein, the Ugandan High Commissioner in London, put the figure of returning refugees at 'around 400,000' (Letter to The Times, 20/8/84).
- ³⁶ Africa Confidential, Vol 25, No 15.