RE: Ugandan North American Association

Dear Mr. Ssennoga:

Please be advised that this office represents numerous Ugandan North American Association members regarding their serious concerns with respect to the organization, leadership, discharge of fiduciary duties, due diligence, and legal operation of the Ugandan North American Association and its alleged heir apparent organization Ugandan North American Association, Inc.

As you are aware, the Ugandan North American Association created its original Constitution and bylaws during its 1990 Convention in Dallas, Texas. The Constitution was subsequently modified in 1993, 2007 and 2010. Pursuant to Paragraphs 1.1 and 1.2 of the Constitution And Bylaws the association was to be named the Ugandan North American Association and was to be organized pursuant to the State of Texas, Not-For-Profit Corporation Code. The Association was so organized and received a 501(c)(3) exemption from the Internal Revenue Service. After a prior tax forfeiture, the organization was subsequently involuntarily dissolved by the Secretary of State for the State of Texas on September 30, 1998.

On or about January 22, 2005 Mr. James Serumaga, Chairman of the Ugandan North American Association-Boston Chapter, Inc. acquiesced to the incorporation of the Ugandan North American Association, Inc. in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Ugandan North American Association, Inc. was so incorporated on February 10, 2005 as a not for profit corporation.

George C. Maroun Jr., Esquire
Richard S. Cabelus, Esquire

In the years following its incorporation, the Ugandan North American Association, Inc. held itself out of the Ugandan North American Association. At the 2011 convention in Denver, Colorado you assumed the presidency of the Association from your predecessor, Mr. Moses R. Wilson. A substantial number of current Members, which includes but is not limited to, Mr. Nkuusa Patrick Francis and Ms. Eva Nabawanuka has had, and continues to have, serious concerns regarding outstanding tax liabilities, ultra vires activities, and breach in the discharge of fiduciary duties within the Association and hereby formally and in good faith make demand for the following:

(1) An Accounting of all tax filings in the past three (3) years with the Internal Revenue Service;(2) evidence of active 501(c)(3) status of the Association;(3) evidence that tax deductible receipts were issued to Members who contributed to the Association for the past three (3) years;(4) evidence that the Association has an active EIN number with the Internal Revenue Service;(5) evidence that monies and funding received from the Government of Uganda was lawfully itemized and declared pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code for the past three (3) years;(6) an itemized receipts and expense ledger for the Association for the past three (3) years; and (7) a full and complete list of all current members in good standing with the Association.

The Membership appreciates your prompt attention to this matter and requires a response to these demands within thirty (30) days of the date of this letter.

Sincerely,

Richard S. Cabelus, Esq.
